

The consumer protection law "Do not Call" should not be weakened!
If someone is given the option of placing their name on the list then under no circumstances should their wishes be overlooked.
The law should remain in effect for years to come.